

Project Dissemination Event 1

Female Voices in the Third Space: Researching Equality, Diversity and Inclusion in South-North Collaborative Online International Learning

Funded by a British Academy/Leverhulme Research Grant

Timings	Day 1
10.00-10.15	Registration and coffee In-person attendees only: Simulation Centre , Technocentre Online attendees: register at https://coventry-ac-uk.zoom.us/meeting/register/tZcpce2gpzlvHNT1dJ4ZZb-8diTJtdhPytpF
Welcome and introductions 10.15 -10.30	Marina Orsini-Jones – Research Centre for Global Learning (GLEA), Coventry University Welcome, introduction and housekeeping
Project overview and initial findings Time: 10.30 - 11.25 (45 mins. + 10 mins questions)	Kyria Finardi (Universidade Federal do Espírito Santo, Brazil) , Lynette Jacobs (University of the Free State, South Africa) , Marina Orsini-Jones , Katherine Wimpenny and Jenny Wells (GLEA) Female Voices in the Third Space: Researching Equality, Diversity, and Inclusion in South-North Collaborative Online International Learning: Introduction to the project and initial findings - assessing impact and future directions
Female (now ex students)	Preeti Suri (India, PhD student in GLEA) , Patience Mkpayah (Nigeria, MA ELTAL graduate) , Sofia di Sarno García (Spain/Italy, former visiting PhD student, currently employed as English lecturer in Spain,

Students' Voices 11.30 – 12.25 40 mins. + 15 mins questions)	Universitat de València and Universitat Jaume I.), Guray Koseaglu (Northern Cyprus, English teacher at Levent College, Nicosia) Female students' voices: reflections on South-North COIL experiences for English Language Teacher Education
Lunch 12.30 – 1.25	Lunch
Female Staff Voices Time: 1.30 – 2.25	Valarie Baloyi, University of Venda South Africa Nomfundo Khoza, Central University of Technology, South Africa Ane Church, University of the Free State, South Africa Asuman Aşık Gazi University, Türkiye Andrea Wherli Bern University of Applied Sciences, Switzerland Testimonials and reflections from female academics involved in COIL
2.30 - 3.45 pm	Eva Haug (University of Applied Sciences, The Netherlands) and Nsoaki Malebo (Central University of Technology, South Africa) + online moderators TBC for online attendees to facilitate online workshop Interactive knowledge-sharing COIL workshop. Participants to share their COIL experiences and models of COIL practised reflecting on the Female Voices and iKUDU project themes in separate rooms for 45 minutes + 30 mins for reporting back all together (around 3 mins per group)
3.45 – 4.00 pm	Coffee Break
4.00 – 5.00	Project data capture: (Interviews/Focus groups) Project team to lead Optional, requires prior informed consent, participants to fill in this form before 18/3 if interested in participating. Male participants welcome too: https://app.onlinesurveys.jisc.ac.uk/s/coventry/female-voices-in-the-third-space-staff
7.30 late	On-site participants only – dinner at the Artisan: https://www.theartisanbarandgrill.co.uk/ (it will be open just for us)